Summary

I am a motivated & creative mind with a passion for Technology. With a background in Computer Science and Software Development, I write codes that implement User Interface and Experience Designs to every challenge I undertake. I thrive on learning and growth, eager to explore new opportunities and connect with like-minds. In my free time, I enjoy music by singing and playing musical instruments. I believe in the power of Possibilities. myQuote="Impossible Is Nothing. How can I be of service#" super excited to see where life's journey takes me...
